

Cynthia Flores is a Deputy General Counsel and Deputy Chief Compliance Officer in the Office of Governor JB Pritzker. Prior to joining the Governor's Office, Cynthia served as a civil rights lawyer in the Office of the Illinois Attorney General. Cynthia believes that ending homelessness is critical to creating a more just and equitable society and reducing barriers to education, employment, and healthcare. Cynthia is passionate about the work that Renaissance is doing to build stronger, healthier communities throughout Chicago.