

Alexandra M. Albright SVP, Chief Compliance Officer

Alexandra M. Albright is SVP, Chief Compliance Officer (“CCO”) for Cboe Global Markets, Inc. (“Cboe”).

In this role, Ms. Albright provides objective oversight in connection with the implementation and maintenance of Cboe’s compliance and ethics program. Ms. Albright and her team are responsible for facilitating a “culture of compliance” at Cboe through the implementation of policies, procedures, and other controls. Ms. Albright routinely interacts with Cboe’s regulators and other outside entities to evaluate and monitor compliance. As CCO, Ms. Albright also communicates with senior leadership, to include the Board(s) of Directors, on key compliance initiatives and how such initiatives may impact business strategies. Ms. Albright and her team are currently expanding their scope to include global corporate oversight to align with Cboe’s recent acquisition activity.

Prior to joining Cboe in 2012, Ms. Albright served as an attorney for Kirkland & Ellis LLP, in Chicago, where she focused on compliance, litigation and corporate finance matters. Previously, she served in senior legal positions with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, in Washington, D.C., including: Senior Counsel for the Division of Enforcement, Office of Market Surveillance; Special Counsel for the Division of Trading & Markets, Office of Trading Practices; and Attorney Advisor for the Division of Trading & Markets, Office of Municipal Securities.

Ms. Albright holds a B.A. in Philosophy from Tulane University, a J.D. from University of Denver College of Law, and an L.L.M., with honors, in Financial Services Law, from Chicago-Kent College of Law.
