

Mindy Wade is originally from Chicago's Albany Park neighborhood and is currently the Director of Finance at the Lawndale Christian Legal Center. She joined Renaissance's Associate Board to help combat homelessness and improve her city as she believes housing is equity, violence prevention, and social justice. Mindy has several years of nonprofit management experience. She holds a Master of Accounting Science (MAS) from the University of Illinois and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Management Accountant (CMA).